Did you receive a notice from DFCS in May or June 2019 stating that your Medicaid case is to be closed but you never got a renewal notice - and nothing else changed with your income or household?

Thousands of Medicaid recipients received a notice like this. You need to act now so that your case will not be closed, your Medicaid will not be cut off-and your Medicare premium will be paid.

You can appeal the Medicaid termination to keep Medicaid.

Here is what you can do:

1. Take a copy of the termination notice to your local DFCS office. If you didn't get a notice, but checked online and your benefits are to end, you can also file an appeal.

2. Tell DFCS you want to file an appeal.
3. Fill out the appeal section on a notice or ask for a form to write a fair hearing request and turn it in to the DFCS office. (Or you can just write out an appeal on a piece of paper. “I appeal because: signed and dated” and get it to DFCS.
4. You can also ask to speak with a DFCS worker directly to file your appeal.

-Give her a copy of your termination notice and your appeal because you never got a notice to renew your benefits.

-Make a note of the name of the person you gave the appeal and the notice to, the time, and the date, and keep the note for your records.

It is important for you to appeal as soon as you receive a notice or determine you don't have your Medicaid. You can take your appeal to DFCS or FAX your appeal to your local office. Keep a copy of your fax confirmation if you get one. If not, get a copy to DFCS immediately.
